Item 8.01. Other Events.

On June 30, 2005, Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Consolidated (the "Company") received approximately $6.4 million of proceeds from the settlement of a class action lawsuit known as In re: High Fructose Corn Syrup Antitrust Litigation Master File No. 95-1477 in the United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois (the "Lawsuit"). The Lawsuit related to purchases of high fructose corn syrup by several companies, including The Coca-Cola Company and its subsidiaries, The Coca-Cola Bottlers' Association and various Coca-Cola bottlers, during the period from July 1, 1991 to June 30, 1995. The Company will recognize the proceeds received as income in its second quarter and intends to use the proceeds to repay long-term debt. The proceeds received represent approximately 90% of the expected recovery with the estimated remaining balance to be paid in late 2005 or early 2006. However, any additional recovery is subject to Court approval. Accordingly, the Company has not recognized any amounts for possible collection of these remaining reimbursements because the ultimate outcome is not determinable.
