This Amendment No. 43 amends and supplements the original Schedule 13D filed on May 18, 1987 by The Coca-Cola Company, as amended by Amendments 1 through 42 (the "Schedule 13D"). Terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings given such terms in the Schedule 13D.

Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction

Item 4 is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

On February 6, 2017, The Coca-Cola Company and Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Consolidated ("Coke Consolidated") entered into a non-binding letter of intent (the "February 2017 LOI") pursuant to which Coca-Cola Refreshments USA, Inc. ("CCR"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Coca-Cola Company, would grant Coke Consolidated certain exclusive rights for the distribution, promotion, marketing and sale of beverage products owned and licensed by The Coca-Cola Company in territory in and around Cleveland, Ohio (the "Cleveland Territory") currently served by another unaffiliated Coca-Cola bottler (the "Cleveland Transaction"). The February 2017 LOI contemplates that CCR would acquire this distribution business in the Cleveland Territory from the existing Coca-Cola bottler immediately prior to selling it to Coke Consolidated. Pursuant to the February 2017 LOI, Coke Consolidated and The Coca-Cola Company also amended their non-binding letter of intent dated February 8, 2016, as described in Coke Consolidated's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on February 10, 2016 and filed as Exhibit 99.2 thereto, to remove the portion of the distribution territory located in northern West Virginia served by CCR's distribution facilities in Wheeling and Fairmont, West Virginia from the distribution territory expansion transaction contemplated by such letter of intent and agreed that CCR will sell the distribution rights and assets associated with such territory to another unaffiliated Coca-Cola bottler.

The exclusive rights for the distribution, promotion, marketing and sale of The Coca-Cola Company-owned and -licensed beverage products in the Cleveland Territory would be granted to Coke Consolidated by CCR pursuant to a final comprehensive beverage agreement (the "Final CBA"), which agreement is described in Coke Consolidated's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on September 28, 2015 (the "September 2015 Form 8-K"). A form of the Final CBA was filed as Exhibit 1.1 to the territory conversion agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the September 2015 Form 8-K.

The February 2017 LOI also contemplates that CCR would sell, transfer and assign to Coke Consolidated exclusive rights for the distribution, promotion, marketing and sale in the Cleveland Territory of various cross-licensed brands to be acquired by CCR at the time it acquires the Cleveland Territory, subject to the consent of the third-party brand owners. CCR would also sell to Coke Consolidated certain of CCR's distribution assets and the working capital associated therewith, as may be necessary to distribute, promote, market and sell both The Coca-Cola Company-owned and -licensed products and the cross-licensed branded products in the Cleveland Territory. Coke Consolidated would pay to CCR at the closing for the Cleveland Territory a cash amount that reflects the agreed value of the exclusive rights to distribute, promote, market and sell in the Cleveland Territory the cross-licensed brands (and the distribution assets and working capital applicable thereto) and the net book value of the distribution assets and working capital associated with the distribution, promotion, marketing and sale of The Coca-Cola Company-owned and -licensed products in the Cleveland Territory. Coke Consolidated would also agree in the Final CBA entered into at the closing of the Cleveland Transaction to make periodic sub-bottling payments to CCR on a continuing basis after such closing for the grant of exclusive rights in the Cleveland Territory for The Coca-Cola Company-owned and -licensed beverage products.

The February 2017 LOI addresses several other matters related to the ongoing expansion of the Coke Consolidated's distribution territories and the implementation of the national product supply system, including the current intentions of Coke Consolidated and The Coca-Cola Company with respect to (i) the implementation of a binding system governance in the Cleveland Territory consistent with Coke Consolidated's implementation of such governance in its existing distribution territories for Coca-Cola products, and (ii) the process pursuant to which Coke Consolidated would be provided opportunities to participate economically in the existing business of The Coca-Cola Company in the United States involving non-direct store delivery of products and future non-direct store delivery of products and/or business models developed by The Coca-Cola Company.

The Cleveland Transaction will be subject to the terms of a definitive purchase agreement. In addition to the negotiation and execution of the definitive agreement, the February 2017 LOI sets forth certain customary conditions to the closing of the Cleveland Transaction, as well as a number of other conditions that Coke Consolidated and The Coca-Cola Company currently intend to be satisfied prior to such closing and/or to be addressed in the definitive agreement, including CCR's acquisition, at or immediately prior to the closing of the Cleveland Transaction, of the distribution business in the Cleveland Territory currently operated by another unaffiliated Coca-Cola bottler.

The foregoing description of the February 2017 LOI is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such agreement and all exhibits thereto, which is filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this Amendment No. 43 to the Schedule 13D and incorporated herein by reference.
